Subject: RE: IRG on Protests

Hello all

There is a lot going on and I thought it would be helpful to clarify some roles and responsibilities, including for IRG, so there is no confusion and we can use scarce resources wisely.

I have asked Shawn to take the lead on managing the IRG/Protests stream, that will meet regularly while the EA is in effect. He will need and get support from the Ops team but also I would ask that Jody and Mike be ready to support Shawn when he asks for help. Shawn is the final authority on agenda, scenario and materials. That should also include minutes.

Jody should be consulted on agenda and see any scenario note before it goes to the PM to review content as she has overall lead on convoy/protest management. Mike will refocus his effort on supporting Jody in overall convoy/protest operations and working with the town on implementing the EA provisions.

I want to thank Shawn and team Ops for pitching in on this. Much appreciated.

A broader rethink on how we deal with IRGs is to follow.

Happy to take questions if there are any.

I will send a separate message about lead on other aspects of the EA - intergovernmental; legal and Parliamentary.

Merci a tous

Janice

Just to confirm that Brian Clow has confirmed an IRG tomorrow at 16h30. This is in PM's agenda already.

Lisa/Kaili/Nicole, can we quickly to get the notice out to Ministers. Given our ongoing challenge on participants I would like to see the list for the last meeting and determine any deletions and/or additions. Could you also confer with partners and propose an agenda for the meeting.
